

What dish might prompt the announcement "Clean up in aisle four!"?

What ghoulish ingredient does one woman keep in a pot?

When might a frog most likely end up on a Chinese menu?

"I loved the witty questions and racing through the museum. I can't think of a better way to bring people together and have fun."

—JEFF BEZOS, FOUNDER AND CEO OF AMAZON.COM

The head of her lover, as seen in the ominous painting Isabella and the Pot of Basil at the MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS.

"Dropped eggs," a colonial dish on the menu at the Union Oyster House on the FREEDOM TRAIL.

When it's in the "egg roll" phase of development, as seen at the NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM.

GET IN THE GAME

To learn more or to book a hunt, call 877.9.GO HUNT, or e-mail info@watsonadventures.com, or visit WatsonAdventures.com.

The hunt's afoot!

WATSON ADVENTURES SCAVENGER HUNTS

Witty, Cultural Team-Building In Boston

"Watson Adventures brings you back to a time when clever search-and-discover walks were cool."

—TIME OUT MAGAZINE

WATSON ADVENTURES SCAVENGER HUNTS: A DASH OF CULTURE

You won't be collecting objects (put back that statue!), but hunting for answers to tricky, humorous questions. No knowledge of any hunt location is required whatsoever—you just need a sharp mind and good teamwork.

ENGAGING, FAST-PACED FUN

In museums, parks, historic neighborhoods and beyond, hunters must hustle to answer questions designed to

- get people relaxed, laughing and having fun
- foster teamwork in a dynamic new way
- introduce people to fascinating places
- lead to an exciting gathering over drinks after the hunt, which we can help you set up
- leave you with more money to spend on that party.

Best of all, you'll see your world—and maybe even your teammates—with new eyes.

"If only high-school field trips had been this much fun, we'd have spent less time figuring out whom to make out with on the bus ride back."

—DAILY CANDY

CRACK A DA VINCI CODE

The questions are crafted to bring out the various skills of each member of your team. A person who's good at seeing the big picture will get one answer, a teammate who enjoys wordplay will get the next, and someone with a knack for navigating may excel at getting the team from place to place. The best teams quickly learn that they must use the strengths of everyone in the group.

A BIG HIT WITH MAJOR COMPANIES

Watson Adventures has staged hunts for more than 75,000 people since 1998 in Boston, New York, Washington D.C., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and beyond. Our clients include Advanced Micro Devices, Bank of America, Biogen Idec, Choate, Hall & Stewart, Converse, Fidelity, GE Healthcare, Google, iRobot, Mercer HR, MetLife, Microsoft, Nestlé, Oracle and Pfizer. Visit WatsonAdventures.com for an extensive list of our clients, as well as numerous rave reviews from clients and the media.

HUNT LOCATIONS IN BOSTON

Our typical hunts last 90 minutes to two hours. If you don't see what you want here, just ask us to create something new for you.

The Museum of Fine Arts Madness and Murder Hunts

Go on an eye-popping tour across the centuries, taking in ancient Egypt, Greece, Rome, Japan, China, India, Paris and the French countryside. You'll find out why a guy would want heartburn on his wedding night, why King Kong would take up smoking, and why a king's mummy would wear lipstick. For an extra challenge, take on our murder mystery edition, in which you must uncover secrets in paintings to figure out who dunnit.

The Secrets of Old Boston Hunt

From the North End to Boston Common, rediscover such historic places as Faneuil Hall, Paul Revere's house, the Old North Church, the starting place for the Boston tea party, the scene of the Boston Massacre, the food stands in Quincy Market, Italian bakeries and much more. Starring Ben Franklin, Larry Bird, the Kennedys, Mother Goose and an Irishman's "bowl of tears."

The Mad Science Hunt at the Museum of Science

Go on a whirlwind tour of the best of the museum, featuring a life-size T-Rex, stuffed beasts, the world's first computer mouse, the fascinating/horrifying trophy room, mysterious messages, a nightmare chair, live lightning and "hot chicks" (in an incubator, of course). You can even rent out the museum for an after-hours hunt and party, which we've done for groups of 200-plus hunters.

The Swimming with Sharks Hunt at the Aquarium

Spiral around the Giant Ocean Tank and dive into exhibits starring seals, sharks, penguins and some of the deep's most colorful and bizarre creatures.

The Haunted Salem Hunt

Find out how Witch Trials villain Sheriff Corwin has helped one house become the "fourth most haunted" in America, visit locations associated with the crushed-to-death execution of suspected wizard Giles Corey and assorted witches and learn from one murder victim why you should never brag about treasure hidden in your home.

The Conquer Boston Hunt

See the best of Boston as you explore Quincy Market, the North End, Harvard Yard, Fenway Park, Chinatown, Boston Common, Beacon Hill, and many other colorful neighborhoods, historic sites, TV and movie locations, and more. You can travel by limo or by mass transit.

Copley Square, Cambridge and Beyond

Do you have another location in mind? We also offer new hunts in Copley Square, Cambridge and the Harvard Museum of Natural History. Our popular Grab 'n' Go Hunt can be done anywhere, combining unusual challenges, tricky questions and Team Photo Challenges. For places such as conference centers, we offer the Great Indoors Challenge, featuring a variety of fast-paced games involving trivia, oddball art and a Video Scavenger Hunt with clips from famous movies.

TAILOR A HUNT TO YOUR NEEDS

To make your hunt particularly memorable, we can

- arrange a party after the hunt at a bar or restaurant
- acquire prizes for the winners or all participants
- add team photo questions and provide cameras
- create special questions about your company, including a customized "Know Your Colleagues" quiz
- lead a special debriefing session with a team-building expert who will underline the lessons that participants can put to use back at the office.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE

On the Web, you can find us at WatsonAdventures.com, or contact our sales staff by calling 877.9.GO HUNT or by e-mailing us at info@watsonadventures.com. Are you ready for an adventure?